UALITY has eloquent speech for sticklers for pure foods, to which fact is attributed the praise and popularity accorded Elk Grove Butter. There is no denying the inportant part Butter plays in the meal and the value it can be in strengthening the system if it be the right sort. You should be sure that it is the right sort—the Ideal Quality Butter. It is the only kind worthy of being served at your table. You will do wisely in following the dictates of eminent Butter experts whose judgment can be relied on in buying butter. They will tell you that for perfection in Butter Quality, absolute purity, sweetness and nutritiousness Elk Grove is by far the best. It is a Butter you will eat with genuine relish. It is made from the purest and richest cream. This cream undergoes the severest pasteurization process, so when made into Butter is as pure as science and skill can produce. It is then put up in air-tight cartons, which safeguard its purity and keep it sweet and ircsh indefinitely. We want you to try Elk Grove Butter. "To taste is to like." It will merit your acknowledgment that it is the best butter you ever tasted.

PRINCE CHARLES OF SWEDEN AND FAMILY.

Prince Charles of Sweden, the good-looking, good-tempered third son of King Oscar and Queen Sophia. The Duke of Westrogothia, to give him his official title, is a lit-tle over forty, but looks younger than he is, and his marriage to the nineteen-year-old daughter of the Crown Prince of Denmarkwas quite a love match. The happy pair are much beloved in Stockholm, where, till the marriage of the future King of Denmark to Princess Margaret of Connaught, the young duchess of Westrogothia was regarded as practically the leader of Swedish society, for neither the queen nor the crown princess cares for that role. Prince and Princess Charles have two little daughters, from whom they are never separated, and with whom they spend every moment of their spare time. The eldest of these, the six-year-old Margaretha, is known by the pretty nickname of "Princess Sunbeam;" her sister, who is two years younger than herself, bears the homely name of Martha.

ALFONSO AND LOUISE. One Rumor Off and the Latest One

On. Special Cablegram to The Star. MADRID, October 21 .- The proposed match between the King of Spain and the elder daughter of the Duke of Connaught is said to be "off," though, of course, no one in court circles will talk about the mat-ter. It appears that the princess would ter. It appears that the princess would have none of it. She is said to have stated to friends in Spain that she had no wish to become a queen, and that the position of the members have become a queen, and that the position of Queen of Spain did not possess for her the slightest attractions. About all that is known about the matter here is that the duke and duchess are taking her to South Africa for the winter, and that the rumored visit to Madrid has been canceled.

The railroads are now carrying annually to this resort about 5,000,000 passengers, and the round trip fare is $5 from New York. Steamboat men feel confident that more than enough travelers would prefer a water to a rail trip to the shore to make the scheme profitable. The new line projected will have a capacity of 3,700 passengers. Two steamers will be put in service at first, one leaving New York nightly at the close of the theaters and arriving here early in the morning, and the other here early in the morning.

This will enable them to cross the inlet bar at low tide, at a time when even many bar at low tide, at a time when even many small yachts are excluded. The boats will attain a much higher speed than the or-dinary steamers, owing to their light draught. They will be equipped with im-mense refrigerating plants for the con-veyance of meats and vegetables from New York for the local hotels and markets.

Just One Exception.

From the Philadelphia Press. Mr. Knox-"Oh, yes, he's a professional masher. Some men simply can't keep their eyes off the ladies." Mrs. Knox—"Yes, unless those same men happen to be sitting in a street car while the ladies are standing."
